

Vuzix Announces Commercial Rollout of Librestream Onsite Connect for the M400 Smart Glasses

Customized Version of Librestream Onsite Connect developed exclusively for the Vuzix M400 to be introduced at the Librestream Innovator Forum

ROCHESTER, NY, February 19, 2020 – Vuzix® Corporation (NASDAQ: VUZI), ("Vuzix" or, the "Company"), a leading supplier of Smart Glasses and Augmented Reality (AR) technology and products, and Librestream Technologies, a leading provider of augmented reality enterprise solutions, announce the commercial rollout of a customized version of Librestream's Onsite Connect that was developed exclusively for the Vuzix M400 Smart Glasses.

"We are pleased that Vuzix is a featured solution sponsor at the Librestream Innovator Forum this year. At the forum, our customers will have an opportunity to experience the Onsite AR capabilities hands-free using voice controls on the Vuzix M400 Smart Glasses," shared Charlie Neagoy, VP Business Development at Librestream.

Librestream's Onsite remote expert software provides secure access to leverage subject matter experts and rapidly diagnose, inspect, and resolve issues in even the most bandwidth constrained environments. With interactive tools such as two-way telestration, video, audio, image sharing, and augmented content, Onsite supports a broad range of mobile devices, computers and wearables to leverage expertise and capture asset data. The Onsite AR platform also includes core capabilities, such as digital work instructions, IoT data, and ecosystem integration, to support deployments at scale.

"Librestream's Onsite platform, now optimized and fully integrated with our M400 Smart Glasses, brings a new level of functionality and performance to the augmented worker," said Paul Travers, Vuzix President and Chief Executive Officer. "This combined solution is already being used and evaluated by customers throughout North America and Europe."

Vuzix will be showcasing the fully integrated joint solution at the Librestream Innovator Forum, an event that brings together Librestream partners and customers across industries from the world's largest companies, in San Antonio, Texas on February 19-20. Enterprises can also experience the joint solution at the Augmented World Expo (AWE) May 27-20 in Santa Clara, CA.
