

Vuzix Receives M400 Smart Glasses Certification for China and Will Target COVID-19 Business Continuity Support

Vuzix' global footprint continues to expand with the M400 now available in 52 countries around the world

ROCHESTER, NY, July 2, 2020 - Vuzix® Corporation (NASDAQ: VUZI), ("Vuzix" or, the "Company"), a leading supplier of Smart Glasses and Augmented Reality (AR) technology and products, is pleased to announce that its M400 Smart Glasses has received CCC certification for sale in China.

Vuzix resellers in China are expected to target COVID-19 business continuity support opportunities in China, as well as other smart glasses applications. With an outstanding camera that provides the best field service and vision-picking capabilities on the market, a ruggedized mechanical design that is ideal for users working in harsh environments, and two-meter drop-tested and IP67-rated for waterproof and dustproof operation, the M400 has become a benchmark for leading-edge performance in the smart glasses industry. The Vuzix M400 Smart Glasses also features Chinese native voice recognition processing and fully localized screens.

"China, in particular, should represent a significant market opportunity for Vuzix and we are ready to hit the ground running immediately to address the needs of our global customers with operations in China that wish to deploy past their small pilots," said Paul Travers, President and Chief Executive Officer of Vuzix. "Worldwide travel restrictions and quarantine requirements related to COVID-19 continue to help expedite purchasing decisions related to smart glasses. Our M400, combined with remote support applications like Vuzix Remote Assist, Zoom, WebEx Teams, Ubimax Frontline and many others, represents an effective solution to provide business continuity during the new normal. When you can't send a person, you just send Vuzix Smart Glasses."
